that two hundred & twenty pounds are so more. — Having also recd a certain tract of land lying & being in Plymouth aforesaid Recd up to by James Lottrop Attorney as a freehold to the within named John Harcock as the estate of the said Thomas Porter Esq. said piece of land is bounded on the east by the road, bounded by the back house and occupied by Jacob Carter & Nathaniel Gordon, butting on the Land of David Turner, said piece of land lies on to the water side in the Ocean portion of the said Thomas Porter & Jasper Jackson, on the land of whom and others apposite the same, Boston side on the lot of land lying on the Boston side of said land as is bounded generally by the lot of James Carter and others Recd up to by the said land northwardly by said property to the westwardly and southwardly by the top of the hill so called, at thirty nine rods, eighteen shillings & four pence and no more. — And as do hereby by virtue of the First & Authority given us by the Law of this Province, whereas it is set off the same (according to the scale to the sum of two hundred and fifty nine pounds eighteen shillings & four pence) to the said John Harcock, to have & to hold the same to him the said John Harcock (Excepting the said James Carter's lot). There is a right of way during his life, in case of his removal of said the said Thomas Porter to go to the above described place by him & of his finding freedom in full satisfaction of the within Execution and the sum & charges thereon, amounting to three pounds be paid to him. — In witness whereof he has severally set out the same this sixteenth day of April AD 1767. — William Carter,
