

PLYMOUTH, 1878
BOOK 443, PAGE 174

“SHALL I GO NAKED PASTURE”

The area surrounding Braley Lane between Route 3 and South Street includes the legendary Pasture above. William T. Davis' "Ancient Names of Localities" lists it as a barren spot near Obery Street, once occupied by a poor woman, who, when repulsed in her request for alms, was in the habit of saying, “Shall I go naked?”

Compliments of Register of Deeds John R. Buckley, Jr. and Marilyn M. Dupuis
From the “Plymouth County Registry of Deeds Notable Land Records Collection”