On the petition of Van B. Swift and others, Selectmen of Bridgewater, representing that nearly all of the old road leading from the corners near Cyrus P. Brown's residence in West Bridgewater Southly and over Skim Milk bridge as called, to a point a little North of the late

The County Commissioners pursuant to an order of notice for that purpose, duly published, posted & served, as appears by the officers return, by which all persons and corporations interested, had due notice, met to view the premises and to hear all persons and corporations interested, at the Highland House in Bridgewater, in said County on the fourth day of June A. D. 1874; and after viewing the premises, and hearing all persons and corporations interested therein, they adjourn said proceedings from time to time, all persons and corporations interested, having due notice thereof, to the Regular Meeting of said Commissioners held at Plymouth in said County on the third Tuesday of March A. D. 1875, when and where they adjudicate and determine that common convenience and necessity require - that the old road in said West Bridgewater and Bridgewater leading from the corners near Cyrus P. Brown's residence in said West Bridgewater, Southly and over Skim Milk Bridge, as called, to a point a little North of the late residence of Martin Fuller, in Bridgewater, except so much of it, as is within the limits of a new road recently located by order of the County Commissioners, be discontinued as a public highway.

March Term 1875.

and for said purpose, and heard all persons & corporations who desired to be heard, and proceeded to discontinue said highway, as follows, to wit:

They hereby discontinue as a public highway, so much of the old road in said West Bridgewater & Bridgewater leading from the corners near the residence of Cyrus P. Brown in said West Bridgewater, Southly and over Skim Milk Bridge, as called, to a point a little North of the residence of Martin Fuller in Bridgewater, except so much of it, as is within the limits of a new road recently located by order of the County Commissioners,

And no person or corporation suffers damage by such discontinuance, no damages are awarded.

Given under our hands and seal at Plymouth, in said County, this twenty seventh day of April, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy five, this return being now made and accepted.
