KENNETH R. FEINBERG

Brockton Native and Prominent New York Attorney
Special Master September 11th Victim Compensation Fund

Brockton native, Kenneth Feinberg is an attorney noted for his skills in mediation and alternative dispute resolution. Feinberg graduated from Brockton High School (Class of 1963), the University of Massachusetts Amherst and New York University School of Law.

Feinberg's prominent career includes having been Senator Ted Kennedy's Chief of Staff and the administrator of many major disaster funds. He managed the September 11th Victim Compensation Fund, the Boston Marathon Victim One Fund, the Boeing Crash Victim Fund distribution among others.

Ken Feinberg is the recipient of many awards and recognitions from universities, legal and public service organizations. He continues to be very supportive of many groups in his hometown of Brockton, such as the War Memorial Building and the Brockton Symphony Orchestra.

In 2016, the City of Brockton celebrated "Ken Feinberg Appreciation Day" with guest speaker New York Senator Hillary Clinton. After the event, he toured the newly named Ken Feinberg Way and met with his old alma mater, Brockton High School students. Ken Feinberg is a true Champion from the City of Champions.
